YOUR INVITATION TO THE ANNUAL
SCIENTIFIC BRIEFING ON PARKINSON'S DISEASE
Pacific Parkinson's Research Centre

During the past year, research conducted internationally and at the Pacific Parkinson's Research Centre (PPRC) has led to deeper understanding of factors contributing to the development of Parkinson's, its complications and novel strategies for treatment. With funding support by the Pacific Parkinson's Research Institute (PPRI), the Centre continues to make significant contributions in these and other areas.

Please join us for presentations by the Centre Director, Dr. Martin McKeown, and his colleagues, followed by a light lunch and opportunity for discussion with the researchers and PPRI Trustees.

Thursday, November 24, 2016
Rudy North Theatre – Lower Lobby
Djavad Mowafaghian Centre for Brain Health
2215 Wesbrook Mall, UBC

9:30	Coffee will be available in the lower lobby
10:00 – 12:00	Scientific Presentations
12 noon	Sandwich lunch / discussion with researchers and PPRI representatives
	Trade show style presentations

We're sure you will find this report on current directions, and the opportunity to meet with individual researchers, intriguing and encouraging.

As space is limited, we ask that you please confirm attendance by emailing ppri@telus.net or calling Kathryn Pearson at 604 681-5031 as soon as possible
